in booths.
The committee also eliminated COLLECTION AGENCY the requirement for a $2000 surety bond to guarantee conduct of or-derly establishments selling liquor by the drink and payment of all fees and penalties. O'Toole was the only member voting against this change. The State liquor law, however, requires such a bond to be given the State.

Public Administrator Sheehan representing a company owning property on Skinker boulevard asked the committee to require drug stores and other places licensed to sell package liquor in addition to other articles, to close on Sunday, when liquor stores must close. The committee replied that this had been considered but it was decided to adhere to the State law, which simply prohibits the sale of liquor on Sunday.

O'Toole said it was hoped to have the bill ready to report to the board by Friday. Workers Are Steadily Losing, Labor Head Says in

Advocating 5-Day Week

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.-With 921,000 persons losing their jobs last month, industrial unemployment in-creased to such an extent that 11,-

690,000 persons wanted work but were unable to find jobs in normal industrial production, William Green president of the American Federation of Labor, announced today.

Of those who have not been able to get work at normal industrial occupations, 4,600,000 have been given emergency work, but nearly 7,100,000 "are without the means to earn bread," Green said.

The increase in unemployment last month, however, was less than in any January since the depression began, according to figures based on trade union reports and govern-ment statistics. In 1930-31 the increase was 1,619,000; in 1931-32, it was 1,289,000; and in 1932-33, it was

Says Work Must Be Spread. The trade union leader said that this country could not find work for even half the unemployed unless hours were shortened.

"The slight gains in business activity which began toward the end of last year," said Green, "probably account for the slackening of winter unemployment.

"This year unemployment was less by nearly 1,500,000 than it was in January last year, but it is still above the 1932 level by 1,500,000; that is, we are half way back to 1932 levels. The lay offs in industry was benefit in the lay offs in industry.

1932 levels. The lay offs in industry were heaviest in retail trade, where Christmas workers were dropped from payrolls. Lay offs in manufacturing, building and public roads also added to the unemployed. In December there were 10,769,000 without jobs in industry, 4,000,000 on emergency government work and 6,800,000 without any work.

"As yet there is no indication that industry is providing enough jobs for the hundreds of thousands being dropped from CWA rolls. If these men and women are not to go hungry, something must be done to find jobs for them in industrial work, where they can create wealth and earn their way.

"Last summer, in two months (July to September) we shortened work hours by five per week and created jobs for more than 1,500,-

000. This was in a period of inactivity dropped 15 per cent. With business rising this spring, a pro-gram of shortening hours could cre-ate a larger number of jobs. We cannot hope to find work for even half the present unemployed unless we shorten hours. That is the only way we can make them a creative part of our economic life, and lift part of our economic life, and lift the weight of unemployment which drags down our industries and the spiritual life of our people. For two years now we have maintained a standing army of 10,000,000 un-employed. Shall we continue this policy or give them normal jobs?

"Workers' incomes are still fall-ing short of the increase in living costs. In January, workers' average weekly income was $20.83 in 16 industries employing nearly two-thirds of all non-farm workers. This was an increase of only 7.5 per cent over last April, while food prices have risen 16.7 per cent and prices of clothing and furnishings in de-partment stores 27.5 per cent. Thus workers are steadily losing by price increases, and we must expect their living standards to be further re-duced as prices go on upward, un-less the NRA program provides for industry and emergency Government work have been stimulating business. Sales of department stores business. Sales of department stores were above last year by 13 per cent in January; but unless workers' incomes keep pace with the price increase, the foundation for a business rise will be cut away. In January, this workers' total income was above April by $600,000,000 monthly; $400,000,000 of this was due to increase in industrial pay rolls, and $200,000,000 to emergency Government work.

"Trade union unemployment reports for the first part of February indicate help given by CWA. Union records show an apparent decline in unemployment in both January and February, due to CWA jobs. Our weighted figures show 22.8 percent of members out of work in December, 22.6 per cent in January and 22.0 per cent in February (preliminary). Industrial gains are shown in a few groups in February such as clothing trades, where the spring season is already beginning. Our report for cittes shows employment gains either through CWA or industry in 15 of our 24 cities; worse unemployment as and no

To the young man, tennis affords many opportunities for developing character, honesty, fair play, quick thinking, and coordination. For him it establishes early an ideal hobby which he can use to advantage as he grows older and becomes more engrossed in business cares and other responsibilities. His hobby in youth can, therefore, continue to be his hobby until after middle age.

To the more mature, tennis affords the necessary mental relaxation, di-version, and physical effort. It is, there-fore, an ideal hobby for the middle-

Half a dozen major industries were mentioned by the bord in an-nouncing that its seasonally adjusted industrial production index advanced from December's 75 per cent of the 1923-25 average of 78 per cent in January.

"The volume of industrial production increased by more than the usual seasonal amount in January and the early part of February and the e ary," the board said. "The general level of wholesale commodity prices, after showing relatively little change during the last five months of 1933, advanced considerably after the turn of the year.

"The January (industrial) advance reflected chiefly increases of than the usual season amount in the textile, meat packing, automobile and anthracite coal industries. Activity at cotton mills, which had reached an unusually high level in the summer of 1933 and had declined sharply in the latter part of the year, showed a in January.

"There were substantial increases in employment and payrolls in the automobile, hardware, shoe and women's clothing industries, while decreases, partly of a seasonal character, were reported for the hosiery, tobacco, furniture and lumber industries."

Construction Falls Off.
Construction contracts, of which public works comprised a large part, were reported to have declined in January and early February after substantial increases in ruary after substantial increases in late 1933. Larger coal and merchandise shipments increased the January freight traffic by more than the usual seasonal amount.

Severe Coughs Relieved by Recipe, Mixed at Home

Big Saving! No Cooking! So Easy!

Pinex is a highly concentrated com-pound of Norway Pine, one of the most reliable agents for relieving severe coughs. It is guaranteed to give prompt selief or money refunded.

uses was returned today in the death at Barnes Hospital Saturday of John McMillan Jr., 20 years old, of Little Rock, Ark.

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up severe coughs due to colds. It takes but a moment to prepare, and costs very little, but it positively gives effective relief quickly.

From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with granulated sugar syrup, made with 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water, stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking neededit's so easy! Thus you make a full pint of better remedy than you could buy ready-made and you get four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and children love its taste.

This simple mixture soothes and helps to heal the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a most astonishing way.

Pinex is a highly concentrated com-

Try This Milk One Full Week .. Pay No More Than Ordinary Milk Price If You Decide Not to Continue It!

DIET EXPERT AMAZED BY SUPER-TEST'S GERM FREEDOM

No wonder diet experts, who know better than any others the value of purity in milk, praise Super-Test so highly. Here is what Miss Frances Floore (above), nationally known dietitian, says:

"I have engaged in the study of milk, in the routine of my work, for years. I can only say that I was amazed at the analysis of Super-Test Milk ... Such a low bacteria count is almost unheard of."

PEVELY Super Jest A MILK

SEE for yourself with this simple 7-Day "Show-Me" test why so many thousands of housewives have changed over to Pevely Super-Test Milk.

You won't need seven days, or seven minutes, to discover the marvelous difference in flavor. You'll distinguish that in the very first glass of Super-Test you drink. This difference will be the more outstanding when you compare a glass of Super-Test, sip by sip, with a glass of any other milk.

But if you have children—especially a little baby who may suffer from colic, gassy pains and diarrhea, caused by milk bacteria, this seven-day test will be an absolute revelation! You'll hardly be able to credit the freedom from distressing symptoms. But you'll know that here, as well as in flavor, Super-Test is really a different milk.

There's a real reason for that difference in flavor. It's not your imagination, but 15% more cream! There's a reason why babies thrive so much better on it - not coincidence, but the fact that Super-Test Milk is 10 times purer than the legal standard, by test. It has less than one-tenth as many milk-souring, gas-forming, colic-producing bacteria in it as the law allows.

We have spent $90,000 already to put these differences into Super-Test Milk.

We accept milk for Super-Test from only a limited group of 160 super-sanitary farms. These selected farms have to live up to a cleanliness code that some folks would call ridiculous, it is so strict. Every farmer has paid out hundreds of dollars for extra equip-ment we demand—extra refrigeration, extra cleanliness precautions. And we in turn pay these farmers 30% above the standard price to get this extrarich, extra-pure milk.

But you won't pay a cent above the standard milk price, if Super-Test does not more than convince you that it is worth the few extra pennies on the price!

Make this test of Super-Test now. Just mail the coupon below, or speak to your Pevely milkman, or telephone GRand 4400. We will see to it that you receive Super-Test for seven days' trial-and at the end of that time, if you don't wish to continue it, we will charge no more than the current St. Louis price for standard pasteurized milk! CHEMIST SAYS HE FOUND NO POISON IN DR. KENNEDY

Murder Trial Witness Tells of Tests of Kidney Contents Made During Surgeon's Illness.

By the Associated Press.

GREENWOOD, Miss., Feb. 26.-Continuing to call medical experts to rebut a State charge that Dr. John Preston Kennedy died last August of mercurial poisoning, defense attorneys in the murder trial of Dr. Sarah Ruth Dean today drew testimony from a hospital attache that first tests of Dr. Kennedy's body fluids "did not bear out a mercury poisoning diagnosis."

C. A. Parmalee, i ncharge of a pathological laboratory at Baptist Hospital in Jackson, Miss., where Dr. Kennedy died after a strange 10-day illness, said the first tests of kidney contents after the dying surgeon had bee ntaken to the hos-pital were negative as to mercury. He contradicted the testimony of a State witness who had quoted one of Dr. Kennedy's physicians as say-ing pathological samples were con-

ed when the tests were first

Dr. Louis Leroy of Memphis, Tenn., presented by the defense, scoffed at the State story that Dr. Kennedy drank a whisky highball poisoned with mercury during a midnight meeting with Dr. Dean last July. Dr. Kennedy had been quoted as saying he drank the high-ball although he noticed it had "a metallic taste."

"A bichloride of mercury tablet dissolved in a nordinary two-ounce whisky glass would be so concen-trated it would be immediately no-ticed and cause quick irritation of the mouth and throat," Dr. Leroy testified. "If a person had time to taste it, he would have time to spit

ONE KILLED AND 11 INJURED IN BUS UPSET NEAR MOBERLY

Chicago-Kansas City Carrier Skids in Snowstorm; "Unavoidable Accident," Coroner Decides. Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MOBERLY, Mo., Feb. 26.-Wreck of a Chicago-to-Kansas City bus, operated by the Blue Motor Coach Lines of Peoria, Ill., near here late Saturday night in a snowstorm, in which Charles T. Fisher, 60 years old, of Pekin, Ill., was killed and 11 other passengers injured, was termed an "unavoidable accident" by Coroner Jesse Maddox of Mo-berly. Passengers said the driver, William Kirby of Kansas City, was in no way to blame for the crash Kirby was one of the most severely

All the injured are being treated in the Woodland Hospital here. Hospital physicians said only one passenger, Mrs. August Balley, 56, Youngstown, O., was seriously hurt. Two operations were performed in efforts to save Mrs. Balley's life. Fisher was thrown through a window as the heavy bus skidded at an underpass and overturned in a deep ditch on United States Highway No. 24, 15 miles west of here.

PARKED AUTO HIT BY ANOTHER CAR: TWO PERSONS INJURED

Two of three persons seated in a parked automobile in Broadway, near Palm street, early yesterday were cut by glass when the machine was struck by another auto-mobile, which failed to stop.

Eugene Flaherty, a filling station attendant, 2822 North Fourteenth street, was cut on the forehead. Miss Elizabeth Soltenz, 18, waitress, 1915A Montgomery street, was cut on the knee. Edward Schlueter, 1413 Newhouse avenue, owner of the machine, was not hurt.

The Illinois advocate was not all the time pleading the cause which he was employed to plead, and which if it was once offered to him it was his duty to accept; he was the personal adviser of the client whose cause he pleaded. and within certain limits he could determi whether the cause was brought at all, and if so whether he should take it up himself or less ft to another man. The rule in such matters was elastic and varied. Lincoln's practice were to the very limit of what is permissible in refusing legal aid to a cause he disapproved. The case was called: he was absent; the Judge sent to his hotel and got back a message: "Bell the Judge I'm washing my hands." One client received advice much to this effect: "I can win your case: I can get your $600. I can also make an honest family miserable. But I shall not take your case, and I shall not take your fee. One piece of advice I will give you gratis: Go home and think seriously whether you cannot make $600 in some honest way."

As Senator Wagner has pointed out: "In

be learned from the decade just past,

1929, the value of goods produced in factories in the United States was 10 billion dollars greater than in 1822. Of this increase, 6 per cent ($600,500,000) went into wages, 8 per cent into salaries, 28 per cent into raw materials and 48 per cent into profits and other costs. Is it any wonder that, during the heyday of our wannied prosperity, less than one-tenth of the popthation received one-third of the national income, while three-fourths of the people lived below the standard of comfort set by the United States Bureau of Labor Sta-There were many contributory causes of the depression which set in over four years ago. The basic cause was that not enough of the social income went into the har of the very numerous cieri, al, laboring and agricultural classes. Their purchasing powwas unable to keep pace with our ability to provide commodities for sale.

If real wages had increased by 20 to 50 per cent between 1921 and 1929, and if farmers had been able to make decent profits, it is unthinkelile that a great dewould have occurred, in spite of all the un-builting and foolbardy developments in stock speculation.

If has long been the popular theory that hig dividents and industrial profits are what keep prosperity humming, out the facts of 1879 disprove this. Eight down to the end of October, 1826, the profits of American industry and france maintained an unprecedentedly high level. To we created good and hard in the misst of wast profits, Indused, both dividend and interest payments were greater in 4930 and 1831 than in 1839—$(1,386,800,800 in 1832; $5,507,800,800 in 1832).

The chief obstacle to recovery lies in the fact that the great mass of potential purchasers do not have enough money in tay a sufficient quantity of even the necessition of life, to say nothing of luxury goods.

Silan Strewn and other spokesmen for the old-lite capitalism have denied that there is any great consentration of wealth and theome in our country. Let us look at some of the figures.

In 1828, 35 non reported increase of over $5.000,000, 30 over $2.000,000, 30 over $2.000,000. Six over $2.000,000 and 14.701 over $100,000. The tay 1 per cent of Federal increase of increase of the total reported increase of increase from 1821 to 1820.

Turing this period, the number of American with incurse over $2.000,000 increased 32 per cent; those with over $1.000,000 increased 2343 per cent. On the other hand, the preportion of the total social income going to those with annual incomes of less than $5000-98.8 per cent of the population-decreased between 1921 and 1929.

income also was reflected in the low wages of the laboring classes. The average in-come of all wage earners gainfully employed eraged slightly less than $1800. Agricultural workers rec sed only $5-5. The United States Government has estimated that, for a family of five, a health and decency budget must run between $1800 and $2100, accord-

Such figures as these indicate how far the American clerks, workers and agricul-turalists were removed from the ability to buy on even a health and decency level right in the prosperous days before the

The purchasing power of the farmers also is at a low ebb, and the rural population still constitutes some 44 per cent of the American population. The farmers alone make up 25 per cent of the population. Anything which improverishes this large group of Americans stands decisively in the way of Americans Scatter delivery of farm income in 1818, the total value of farm income in the United States was 25 billion dollars. By 1822, it had shrunk to $5,200,800,800. The share of farm income in the total national income dropped from 1874 to 9 per cent even in the boom decade from 1819 to 1828. In in the boom decade from 1819 to 1829. In June, 1832, the prices of farm products were only 52 per cent of their pre-war level, while the prices of the commodities the farmer had i. buy were 18 per cent higher than they were in 1894. The farmer, there-fore, could purchase with his farm products only 47 per cent of wh 2 he could have housele to 1894.

The inabspute income of the majority of American workers and factors was thus, by all colds, the most important cause of the depression. The lat. x can never be ended until the masses are given sufficient income to make them really effective con-

BALLET RUSSE CLOSES

'Beach" Given at Final Performance at Odeon Before Crowded House.

By THOMAS B. SHERMAN.

HE Monte Carlo Ballet Russe concluded its St. Louis engagement yesterday afternoon at the Odeon before a house that was alnost as crowded and fully as enthusiastic as at the three preceding performances. The program included repetitions of "Petrouchka" and the Polovstien dances and "Beach' a new ballet with music by Jean Francaix, the young French com-poser, sets and costumes by Raoul Dufy, the celebrated French painter and choreography by Massine.

The most important element in "Beach" was the decor. Both the curtain and the background were endowed with the same quanties that one sees in Dufy's canvasses Gay, playful and ironic they reflected the viewpoint of an artist who seems to regard the world as a toy, but an intensely amusing one. This general feeling ran, through the choreography, but though the subject matter-dealing, as it did, with the frivolous exuberance of bathers, pajama girls, and beach -involved the same organization and co-ordination of movement as the more important ballets. One of the most beautiful tableaux seen during the whole afternoon in fact came at one of the periods in this performance when Lichine and Baronova fell from one of those stylized embraces into a composition with bodies suspended at right angles to each other. "Petrouchka" and the Prince Igor went with the same verve as at their first performances. Tatiana Riabouchinska appeared as the tallerina and made the role very poignant. Lichine and Woizikovsky repeated their successes as the blackamoor and the Petrouchka and Efrem Kurz, the conductor of the orchestra, was as precise and as vitalized as ever.

The unqualified success of the whole engagement has prompted the hope that an annual ballet season will be undertaken by the Symphony Society.

me during our lively season of 1899. At first Ned Hanlon and Harry von der Host refused to consider any such offers. Soon their attitude changed. There were rumors of the National League being cut to eight clubs. This meant, of course, that Baltimore would be one of the clubs to be dropped. Business had fallen off because of the Spanish-American War, and it was a struggle to make both ends meet. Though it was repeatedly denied, the players had good reason to believe that the big cut was coming.

An Easy Point Winner. The performances of the veteran gave him an easy victory for the day on a point-scoring basis. At the conclusion of the four final events he had a total of 145 points. Delphier was a distant second, with 85 points. Other point totals were: McGown, 60; Herman Perleberg, Cleveland, 50; Tony Rogers, Cleveland, 20; Bobby Lamb, New York, 15; Bill Minster, Chicago, 15, and Jim Jamieson, St. Louis, 10. From St. Louis the group moves on to Tulsa and then to Oklahoma City. Additional meets may be held at Kansas City and Chicago. son drawing to a close, one of the big features remains to be played and will be played tomorrow night at the St. Louis University gymnasium when the Billikens and Wash ington U. Bears meet in the second of the series for the city collegiate

The Bears, by virtue of two vic tories in three games last season, are present holders of the itle but their hold has slipped a bit because of the Billikens' 32 to 28 victory in the opener of the 1933-34

If basketball statistics were reliable—which they most decidedly are not—Washington would appear to have little chance in tomorrow night's contest. The Billikens, with 10 victories in 14 games, have a per-centage of .714 while Washington winning seven out of 17, can claim one of only .412. Moreover, the Billikens have scored 460 points to 394 for the opposition while the Bears have counted 472 points to 526 for their opponents. Thus, averages favor the Billikens, 33 points to 28 on the offense and 28 points to 31 on Further comparison might be obtained from the showings of the two teams against the Missouri Tigers. In two games, with honors even, the Billikens scored 52 points to 53 for the Tigers, who, in their one game, defeated the Bears, 30 to 18.

The Bears will have had more late preparation for the game than nell and winning from Drake. In the Drake game, last Saturday night, the Bears showed more teamwork than in any previous game

WHERE do you rank Carch mpions of the past?" is another little trifle which a cor-· It's a large order in more than one way. The Man Mountain has given us too few samples of his work as a champion to rate him. On what he has shown he is a good but not superior boxer; if he has a knockout punch it is only when the enemy puts himself in just the right position for Car-nera's right-hand uppercut. He hasn't unusual aggressiveness. But he has unusual size, splendid condition, great resisting power and a pretty fair defense. His greatest assets are his size and reach, which make his jaw about as easy to shake as the Rock of Gibraltar. If his mere bulk outweighs all the normal assets which a fighter brings to the ring, then he can be rated a really great fighter, because of his impregnability.

Primo Not Invulnerable.

As yet we do not accept the Atheory that Carnera's immense size makes him invincible. We believe that a fighter with the quick power thrusts of a Demp-sey could beat Carnera with body blows; that the tremendous man Jim Jeffries could have beaten Carnera down. And that half a dozen men could outpoint him in a limited-round fight.

Until Carnera shows more than he has thus far displayed, he will have to be rated down with the lesser champions such as Shar-key, Hart, Tommy Burns, Willard and perhaps Schmeling.

Ranking the Champions-

Phooey! HUMAN nature is never satis-tied to know that champions must all be pretty good men, or they would not have reached the top. It wants to have its titleholders ranked and numbered. "Who was the greatest ever?" is, of course, the commonest of all

Answering it is more or less futile, since the conditions under which each battled were in some respect different from those under which the others fought their way to the top. The battlers of finish-fight days and 45-round contests had an entirely different proposition from those who today seek honors in 10 and 15-round engagements. Ifad the conditions of today existed when Corbett fought Jeffries the first time, Jeffries would have lost his crown and Corbett would have been the first heavyweight champion to have lost and then won back his title.

Had the non-foul rule in Nev York existed at the time Schmeling fought Sharkey, the German would have recorded a knockent victory, instead of having been awarded the crown on a foul Had Jack Dempsey been fighting Tunney under 25-round conditions, he would have been

AND this brings us to another fact which makes it difficult to rate the heavyweights of the past: it is impossible to say what part age and deterioration played in defeating the great fighters new champion was involved.

knocked out both at Philadelphia

Sullivan was just a weary old hulk, beyond the stage where he could train; what Corbett would have done in the ring when John L. was the lusty young bull of his earlier days and with bare knucks, is something for conjecture to deal with.

How would the 37-year-old Fitzsimmons have fared against the granite-jawed Jeffries, had Bob been, when they met, say 10 years younger, with the vitality lost in

Would the sleek Negro, Jack Johnson, have laughed at and kidded the mighty Jeffries of say 1901, as he did that hulk of a once great champion, returning after a seven years' absence from the ring?

Would Tunney have lasted 10 rounds against the lithe and tiger-ish Dempsey of 1919?

There is no common denomi-nator by which these men can be figured and any attempt to rate them is just an individual opin-

What John L. Sullivan, brought up under modern ring conditions could have done against Dempsey or the impregnable Jeffries of his early days or the crafty and hard-hitting Fitzsimmons is just onin-ion. There isn't much doubt, however, that the popular fight-ing hero would have to be picked from among this quartet, to please majority of ring followers.

We like to think that Dempsey deserves the post of honor as No. 1 boy, although defending the choice would entail some major oratory. This Jeffries was such a hek of a MAN one wonders if even the tremendous trusts of could have brought him down in

If this writer were asked to rate the champions it would be something like this:

No. 1—Jack Dempsey, the hard-est and fastest hitter and a natural fighter.

No. 2—Jim Jeffries, a terrific hitter with probably the most rugged and powerful body of all champions.

No. 3—Jack Johnson, the world's best defensive champion, yet a great fighter with it.

No. 4—Bob Fitzsimmons, the greatest ring general with a real wallop, but too light. No. 5-Jim Corbett, probably the fastest and cleverest of all heavyweights. In his prime almost unbeatable in ten rounds. No. 6-John L. Sullivan, most aggressive of them all, with nost aggressive of them an, with an iron fist and lots of courage. No. 7—Carnera, solely because of his bulk. No. 8—Max Schmeling, a plodder with a system, game and endur-ing when he was at his best. No. 9—Take your pick of these remnants: Willard, Sharkey, Marvin Hart and Tommy Burns. And there you are. We can only add that if it were possible for a promoter to arrange a match between Dempsey and either Jeffries, Johnson, Fitzsimmons or Corbett, each and every one in his prime, it would bring back the million dollar gate for one

New York, Feb. 26.—Raw sugar was irregular early today and while duty frees sold at an advance of 1 point for spots, Cuban declined 10 points from the last previous sales. The business reported included 10,000 bags of Puerto Rican due March 12 at 3.30 and 50,000 bags of Cuban now loading at 3.47.

Futures opened at advances of 1 point on a little covering and some buying by trade interests and showed little further change until just before midday, wher there was a sharp reaction under increased liquidation and hedge selling. The decline in the Cuban price and the steadily increasing producing in Cuba was probably responsible for the selling and seemed to restrict buying which was confined principally to covering on the way down. troops back in readines; to move at the instant disposition of the Government to meet any attack," said Dollfuss.

"There are persistent reports that $800 to 10,000 so-called Austrian Legionnaires in Germany are ready to invade Austria. We know there are several thousand Austrian Nazis in Germany but we have no const.

to invade Austria. We know there are several thousand Austrian Nazis in Germany, but we have no confirmation that they are near our frontier. I am inclined to discredit such reports. But one cannot know what stupid thing might be undertaken.

"The best way to discourage such a mad adventure is to be ready to meet it—hence the preparations of which I have spoken."

A radio ultimatum from Munich by Theodore Habicht, German 'Inspector-General of the Nazis in Austria," virtually demanded that Dollfuss surrender his Government to the Nazis manual to the Nazis manual to the Nazis manual to the Nazis surrender his Government to the Nazis manual to the Nazis manual

STOCK, GRAIN

Majority of Leaders Record Losses of 1 to 2 or More Points-For Most Part the Decline is Orderly.

STOCK PRICE TREND. Declines 694 Unchanged Total issues..... 838 New 1934 highs.... 10

New 1934 lows 21 NEW YORK, Feb. 26. stock market exhibited further sness today, and, with few ptions, the majority or the eaders recorded losses of 1 to 2 or more points. There was a brief selling rush in the early afternoon, but, for the most part, the decline was orderly. The close was heavy. Transfers approximated 2,250,000

The timidity of traders was scribed partly to several causes in the automotive industry, to fears of drastic Federal regulation of speculation and to doubts as to the effect on business of a curtailment of CWA activities. Commodities were about as restless as stocks.
Wheat lost more than 1 cent a bushel, cotton yielded more than a bale and silver and rubber were reactionary. Some classes bonds developed weakness. The ends developed weakness. The dollar was slightly lower in terms of foreign exchanges.

There were a few mild equity rallies near the close, but they were unimpressive. Gains were held by Dome, American Can, duont. Loew's and Seaboard Oil. nited Aircraft was under pressure throughout, losing about 2 points. Case, Allied Chemical and U. S. elting dropped as much. Losers of around a point or more included U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Consolidated Gas, General Motors, Santa Fe, Standard Oil of New Jersey, West-inghouse, N. Y. Central, American nelting, Western Union and Pennsylvania. American Telephone was fractionally lower.

Wheat closed unsteady with loss esof 1 to 1% cents a bushel. Corn off % to %. Rye reacted % to 1 cent and barley eased 1/2 cent. At Winnipeg wheat yielded ¼ of a tent a bushel. Cotton ended with ines of $1.05 to $1.30 a bale. Bar ver was reduced 1/2 cent an ounce 45% cents. At mid-afternoon the pound was 4 of a cent at $5.0814 and Baldw

French francs were .01% of a cent digher at 6.57% cents. Dutch guildgained .13 of a cent at 67.18 its and Belgian belgas and Swiss francs advanced .02 and .04 of a gent, respectively. Canadian dollars were unchanged at 99.37 1/2 cents. The magazine "Steel" estimated perations in this industry expanded four points during the past week est level since last August. At London bar gold declined 1 pence to 136 shillings 5 pence an ince. On the basis of the po ening quotation, this was equivaent to $34.67 an ounce. Price and net change of the ten

Wool Suits Win Favor In St. Louis

Black Crepe Frocks Are Also Very Popular for Daytime

By Sylvia Stiles

N OVELTY woolen suits and black crepe frocks have been competing for first honors among diswell-dressed St. Louis women dur ing the past week.

The suits have been interesting because of their unusual color com-binations and their variety callyling. Dresses have shown a prefer ence for white trimmings, although several attractive ones have evaded the popularity of white accents and retained their fashion importance. Mrs. E. R. Jul-buttons adorned it. The skirt was blouse with a high neckline included two shades of blue, rust and cream. Mrs. Culver's hat was a rust colored stitched beret and her pocket book carried out the same theme as to color and decoration. Her shoes were of brown kid and suede, cut high about the instep and buttoned rather than tied. Another interesting tweed suit in. This was a three-piece model of sheer soft wool combining gray, white and black in a small plaid design. The short jacket and skirt resembled a two-piece dress, as the jacket had a high, round, collarless neckline and fastened with cut steel links rather than buttons. The jacket was slightly shorter than hip length and had a black patent leather belt. A three-quarter length topcoat was collarless but introwide lapels. Two large patch pock-ets and very deep cuffs were among its features. Black accessories emphasized the importance of black in the color scheme of this costume

The jabo started at the left side of the high round neck, where it was held with a green and gold clip and extended down the front to a point slightly below the waistline. Sleeves were long and tight, with a wide black long and tight, with a wide black satin ruffle at the wrists and up the side to the elbow. The belt of this frock was of stitched fabric and the skirt was plain tailored. A black wool off-the-face hat and black suede pumps completed a most becoming and unusual costume.

CHARLES DICKENS

Dickens wrote this narrative of the New Testament in 1849 for his children-and for them alone. Publication of the manuscript was forbidden—by a stipulation in his will—until the last of his children should have died.

The recent death of Sir Henry Fielding Dickens, the last surviving child of the author, made this unpublished work of Charles Dickens available for publication. First publication will be a momentous event in the history of literature.

BEATRICE BURTON

CHAPTER SEVEN.

HO was the man that Dad and I met just outside the house a minute ago?" John asked as they sat down at the large round table in the middle of the dining room.

"That must have been our new roomer." Susan shook out the folds of her napkin as she spoke. Aunt Emma still insisted that they all have clean napkins at every meal just as they had them in the palmy days when there had been a resident laundress in the house, and Susan often spent an entire morning standing at the board in the basement, ironing piece after piece of worn damask linen.

"We've just rented Grandfather Broderick's room to a man,"

"To a paying guest-a man who won't be a bit of trouble, I'm sure," said Lutie, smiling across the table fulness. "Let's not say 'roomer,' Susan. It sounds just like Pigtail Alley." She stopped abruptly as Anne came in for the empty soup plates. The family never discussed their private affairs before Anna, but she managed to know cery-thing that was going on in the

She had come to work for the Brodericks 11 years before, a girl of 19, just arrived from her native Sweden, pink cheeked, fresh, blueeyed and yellow hair. She was stout-er now, and the years she had spent fetching and carrying and cooking for the family had hardened the color in her cheeks and robbed her of a great deal of her freshness. But she was still handsome in a large blond deep-bosomed way, and Herbst, the milkman, had been in love with her for a long time.

"Well, this roomer business set tles one thing for me," John said slowly and deliberately as soon as she had carried the dinner plates around the table and left the room. Lovely Susan Broderick lives in the old iamily mansion with her father, Morris, Brother John, Uncle Worthy, his wife Edna, and a spinster au. Lutie. Although they have lost their wealth, the old folks live in a dream world of social prominence. They feel humiliated when it is necessary to take in a "paying guest." Susan is filled with pity for the stranger: she knows he will be ignored by ther snobbish relatives. The family wonders what Susan's fiance, Wallace Steffen, young banker, will think. Susan is in favor of telling him the truth, but Aunt Edna frowns on this, saying. "If the man uses the side door, Wallace will never have to see him. Don't say anything, Susan, unless you have to." John, working his way through college, wants to give it up, and get a job on The Express. His father's heart is set on the boy becoming a lawyer. SYNOPSIS.

The four dark middle-aged faces around the table brightened suddenly as if she had swept a flashlight around the table. Only John did not beam at her from his seat beside her. His face kept its grave unsmiling look, the look that made flippant girls tell him that he was one of those strong, silent men.

"What's the matter, John?" she asked him. "You'd like to see me marry Wallace, wouldn't you?"
"Why, sure, if you want to." He of way, and she realized all at once that the news of her engagement came as a surprise to him. As she stared at him he got to his feet. "Gosh, there's some telephoning that I forgot to do," he said vague ly, and walked out of the room.

"Now, isn't that just the sort of remark you'd expect him to make about Susan's engagement!" Lutie cried. "I suppose he's angry be-cause she didn't consult him about getting married before she said 'Yes' to Wallace!—Why, Susan, this is just the nicest news I've heard in George E. Sokolsky, who lec-tures on Far Eastern conditions, was recently quoted as saying, "You have to have happiness and prosperity to foster war sen-timent." The quotation was reprinted in this column. Mr. So-kolsky informs us the quotation is incorrect, and says that he never said any such thing.

MARCH OF PROGRESS

EVERYBODY knows that the Japaness have been dumping inferior electric light globes in this country, thus creating a surplus of unsold, superior, but higher priced globes of American manufacture. Up to now nothing much has been done to remedy the situation. It is known, however, that a hitherto obscure Columbia professor has at last worked out a plan that is entirely sound. Or plan that is entirely sound. Or mostly sound. He suggests that the Government finance partial payment purchase of cornets among the unemployed. With a cornet in practically every home, millions of men will use their leisure attempting to learn how to play the cornet. Soon they will be looking around for old derbies to mute their horns, due to complaints of neighbors. As practically all old derbies were used up as home brew strainers during the late dry era, the electric light bulb manufacturers can step in and popularize the use of American made globes to stuff into trumpets. Isn't it simple? Or is it? overnment finance partial pay-

COOK-COOS Let's EXPLORE Your MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

See Whether His Opinions Agree With Your Own

AUTHOR'S NOTE: These answers are given from the scientific point of view. Science puts the rights of organized society above the rights of individuals.

The evidence on this point is very meager, but in a general way the factors for high intelligence do seem to be "dominant" over the factors for 'lower intelligence. However, there are so many factors involved in the heredity of intelligence that it would be a pretty safe bet that the children would average in between the high and the middling, although an occasional child would likely be as high as the high parent and another as low as the low.

Yes. As, I noted last week. Dr. Irving Lorge and other psychologists to every boy and girl in the land from 4 or 5 years of one in the line of Columbia, have followed both the educational and vocational careers of two thousand boys from 14 to 22. They found that a one-thour intelligence test predicted a boy's future school success better than his previous eight years' scholarship marks, attored would likely be as high as the high parent and another as low as the low.

Shorter Hours, Higher Pay Rate and More Equitable Rule of Price Regulation Among Reforms Administrator Proposes.

the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Recovry Administrator Johnson today uddenly unfolded a 12-point proram for revising existing codes. Before the hundreds invited to omplain could voice a single critifollowed by a bigger and better blue eagle compliance campaign-"ca!l it what you will," he said—to make the emblem indispensable to all

"We are going on as we have begun," he said in a paragraph aimed at NRA's opposition. "These meetings are the first move in a closing up of our ranks for a new forward

"Chance or circumstance may stop it, but you are not going to top it or even make it falter."

The administrator threw open sions which will run in five simultaneous performances, day and to present objections to the current program or complain of the codes has had at least 15 minutes to go it the immediate audience, but over opponents, denied that NRA had spoke a confident claim that the ndustrial program will march on.

His Twelve Corrections. The 12 corrections which he said de already gathered data has shown 16, to be necessary were: 1. A more uniform and equitable rule of price stabilization where necessary to prevent throat-cut competition, with further insurance against prices outstripping purchasing power.

2. A more effective rule to prevent sales below costs of produc 3. Uniformity in wages and hours in industries which are competitive. 4. Uniform classification of areas for the prevailing Southern wage differential.

5. Further reduction in work hours and further increase in hourly wages.

6. Protection against monopoly, oppression of small enterprise and inclusion in codes of buying regulations to protect the small fellows. 7. An improved method to cure compliance.
